Prime Commercial Opportunity!

Take advantage of a rare opportunity to own approximately 1.3 acres of highly visible land along Johnston Street, right in the heart of Lafayette. This property is strategically located in one of the city's busiest commercial corridors, surrounded by thriving businesses, national retailers, and high-density residential neighborhoods. The site includes a 3,010 square-foot former residence that has been thoughtfully renovated and is currently suited for retail or commercial use. However, the real value lies in the land itself — a prime candidate for redevelopment to meet the demands of Lafayette's growing commercial landscape. With exceptional frontage on Johnston Street and impressive traffic counts, this location offers endless potential for retail, office, medical, or mixed-use development. Whether you're an investor, developer, or business owner looking to establish a presence in one of Lafayette's most active areas, this property presents a unique and strategic opportunity.

Don't miss your chance to capitalize on this high-traffic, high-visibility location. Contact us today for more details!

A glimpse into Downtown History

The Keller family has deep roots in baking, starting in the Alsace region of France before making their way to America in the 1760s. In 1885, Victor Keller—great-grandfather of today's owner—opened the very first Keller's Bakery in Abbeville. Fast forward to 1929, Keller's expanded to Lafayette under the direction of Victor's son and daughter-in-law, Fenwick and Eleanor Dyer Keller. In 1948, they built the now-iconic Keller's Bakery building at 1012 Jefferson Street, where the business still operates today. It's now proudly owned by Fenwick's grandson, Kenneth. In true European fashion, the family lives upstairs, keeping tradition alive.

The building itself reflects the sleek, functional style of the late 1940s. Think rounded and ribbon windows on the second floor, a unique multi-level roofline, clean lines with windows flush to the exterior, and a design that prioritizes purpose over ornament. While styles have evolved, Keller's still stands as a beautiful blend of history, modernism, and hometown charm.

We walk there often—it's one of our favorite spots for a quick breakfast before morning meetings or a sweet pick-me-up after a long day. There's something special about a place that feels like home and still delivers the perfect pastry every time!

We keep you up-to-date on what's hitting the market and being sold in Acadiana...and our friends over at Developing Lafayette will tell you what's happening with those properties!
